

Spruce Avenue 2020 Scavenger Hunt

During the month of September the Spruce Avenue Community League is inviting you to join us for a virtual scavenger hunt. Capture as many of these treasures on photo and send in a collage to programdirector@spruceavenuecommunity.com (no camera no problem! Send in a written description of what these treasures are). A winner will be randomly selected from the entries October 1st and will receive a gift prize! Please include your full name and contact information with your entry. Note all entries/photos/collages are subject to future use by the Spruce Avenue Community League in social media, print, display or other advertisements.

Adults/Family:

This type tree is a bit of an icon around here

If you're walking on one of these 6 streets or avenues you're on the perimeter of our neighborhood

You might not go here to place a call but it once helped to keep Edmonton connected

Throw back to our original street names

This tree type is keeping residents supplied with cider and pies

A quick commuters dream, witnessed moving through our neighborhood

Many of our local homes are in touch with their original roots, and it shows

A sign to show you noticed and care your neighbors front yard has bloomed this year

Proof of the "Spruce Ave" schools age

Higher learning in an airport adjacent approved height

Our neighborhood is known to be supportive but this hospital takes it to a new level

Coffee, monthly meetings, skates, garage sales and parties...it's all possible here

A flower in bloom all year long

A string of colorful flags

This year will mark 102 years of community league which means we have seen 37230 of these shine to life (or bring sleep to our homes)

This community has been here since the start, they have a legacy or grocery and language education remaining with us now

It's okay to act up here

Your favorite Spruce Avenue sight

A monumental Canada 1967 symbol

Kids

A colorful sidewalk covered in chalk (your own designs are just fine as well)

Your favorite park activity

A flower in a neighbor's yard

Local animals out to play

A neighbor with decorated windows

Soccer goal

A tree lined street

Your favorite thing/person in Spruce Avenue
